AQUA SQUARES

Paula Ropshaw

Hello from beautiful southern Maryland. We hope everyone had a happy, healthy holiday with plenty of fun, family and food. Sometimes it's hard writing about what happened when it hasn't happened yet or remembering everything that happened in the last two months. But, we had our annual Christmas dance n Dec 19th. Our club continues to be the warm, friendly club, always welcoming visitors and guests. If you ever feel like traveling south for some good crab cakes, do it on a Friday and come dance with us. Our lively Christmas dance was on Friday December 19th. Three were lots of sparkly outfits on the dance floor and two of the greatest callers in the world on our stage. Thank you to Bill Harrison and Gary Felton for keeping us dancing all of 2025. Our club did its usual superb job collecting for Toys4tots. A huge box of toys was donated to our community center where we dance every week. Hard to believe we are heading into 2026. We are talking festival and gathering thoughts and ideas for a basket. If all goes as planned our basket should be HUGE.

FREDERICK COUNTY PROMENADERS

Margie Barber

The Frederick County Promenaders are having a wonderful dancing season so far. As of December 17, our class of 10 enthusiastic students has learned many of the Mainstream calls. The entire month of January will mostly be review, review and review!

Our December 8th dance featured Terry Headlee as our caller and line dance instructor. Our final line dance was Cotton Eyed Joe, which requires partnering up. What a hoot that was! Our square dancing had four squares on the floor as we danced the afternoon away alternating between Mainstream and Plus tips.

Friday, December 19th was our holiday dance. We kicked off the evening with a potluck dinner. Everyone brought their favorite dishes and desserts and needless to say, it was a savory meal!

Mike McIntyre performed his usual fantastic trifecta of calling, cueing and leading line dances. Since our students were attending a club dance for the first time, the majority of the tips were Mainstream. Kudos to our students, who did a great job! We had five squares dancing the entire afternoon.

We capped off our evening with a holiday sing-a-long, led by Viola Noffsinger, singing quite a few treasured holiday songs.

The Frederick County Promenaders wish everyone a very Happy New Year, filled with lots and lots of dancing!
