Help Needed For Late Issues

As I am sure you have noticed, this issue is late, and if you look closely, it doesn't have as much club information as past issues have. The total solar eclipse at the start of April preoccupied me. The next issue will probably also be late as the National Convention will take up the end of June. What would it take to remedy this lack of time problem?

As I have mentioned in the past, it is you, WASCA dancers who are the primary authors of Calls'N'Cues. While there are six+ regular columns written by WASCA leaders that appear in each issue, the most important and most interesting news is to be found in the "Club News", "Picture Time", "Calendar of Events", "Special Dance Flyer" sections. Several clubs have designated club members to send me entries for these sections. For those clubs, that has been working well. I cut and paste their inputs into the appropriate sections.

Unfortunately, too many clubs do not send me anything. For those clubs I scrounge for information. Depending on my available time I develop items from other sources. For "Club News" I can summarize the club's entry in the WASCA directory. For the "Calendar of Events" I can derive entries from club flyers and club web sites. In addition to the time required to find the information, at this time of year I have the additional unknown of summer schedules? Is the club dancing during the summer? When do they go on summer schedule. (And for the next issue, when do they go off).

I get flyers from many sources. The best is for club representatives to send them to me. I will also get copies from emails sent to [WASCAdances], [MDSDF], and [LetsDance-VA], and various web sites. Finally I scarf up flyers at dances and festivals that I attend.

While I can use these methods, they take time. During periods when I am very busy, (like April with the total solar eclipse and June with the National Convention) Calls'N'Cues suffers. Bottom line – If you would like your club's information to be available, please take responsibility and send it to me.

Until next Issue

(WASCA Presidents 2023-2024)*

I hope everyone had a great time at the 2024 WASCA Festival. John and Daryl Davis and their committee, did an outstanding job in setting up and carrying out this great event. Now Steve Cunnion and Pat Marks are hard at work on the 2025 Festival, "DUCK AND DIVE IN 25". As most of you know we will be in a new location, Dulles Airport Hilton. It looks like a great location. Nice dance rooms, plenty of parking and not hard to get to. Now they need your help. Make your reservations for both the Festival and the Hotel as soon as possible.

Continued from March-April 2024 issue of Readers Digest article titled, "Let's Dance! It's good for your body, soul and even your brain." "Square Dance is socially demanding, cognitively demanding, and physically demanding., Anyone who's ever felt the irresistible urge to sway to a favorite song knows that combining music and movement can lift your mood and melt away stress. In square and round dance, we have to learn patterns, we have to think symmetrically and asymmetrically, we have to remember sequences. The effect extends beyond dance to the real world making tasks in the real world easier to navigate" More to follow in the next issue.

What we teach by what we don't call

When callers teach, we review continuously. Repetition is an essential component of teaching. However, if I repeat a sequence of perhaps three calls and I don't vary these calls, I am teaching the dancers that this is the only way to execute the call I'm trying to focus on. I need to come back and call something that uses these calls or at least uses some of them, but uses these calls differently. This makes the dancer aware that there are different ways to execute the calls, depending on the formation, arrangement, and the preceding and following calls.

As an example, if I am working on circle to a line, and I repeat "Heads lead right and circle to a line" and only break it up with "Sides lead right and circle to a line", then I'm teaching the dancers that lead right is only followed by circle to a line and you can only circle to a line after "Lead right". I saw this recently when calling a dance. I was using a singing call figure with "Heads promenade half, lead right, swing thru". One couple executed promenade half perfectly, but lead right was shaky. They had not danced lead right after a heads promenade half. Following that with swing thru caused the square to break down because they were not able to do a call other than circle to a line after lead right. They learned this by never having anything called after lead right except circle to a line.

This occurs frequently and the more we callers call by rote, the more we are conditioning our dancers to dance short sequences of calls rather than individual calls. In the above example, the dancers were conditioned to think that lead right, circle to a line was one call. As another example, most all callers teach that swing thru can be done from facing couples as well as from waves. We are all comfortable with Heads square thru four, swing thru. However, if I were to call Heads square thru four, spin the top, chaos would reign. Two conditioning problems are in this sequence of two calls. First, the dancers may not have danced any ocean wave calls except swing thru from facing couples. Second, they may have been conditioned that spin the top can only be danced if swing thru is called first. These are additional examples of teaching by what we don't call.

Examples of this conditioning can be seen in most mainstream ocean wave calls. We don't call most ocean wave calls from left hand waves. We call variations of swing thru from left hand waves, but we don't do much else. We frequently avoid calling spin the top, spin chain thru, scoot back, hinge, extend, circulate and split circulate from left hand waves. If we think about the plus program, most plus calls have at least six variations, but we only dance one or two. Of the 29 calls on the plus list, I identified 17 calls that we typically only call from one set-up. As a result, we callers have conditioned dancers that these calls are not done from left hand waves and we've done it by what we don't call.

Why do we call and teach this way? Being flexible enough to call variations takes work. The caller has to know what starting formation (line, wave, column, etc.), and what arrangement (boys on the ends, boys in the center, boys facing in/out, etc.) is needed to call a variation of a call that would break up a "standard" sequence. The caller then needs to know what calls to use to get the desired formation and arrangement. Hence, calling only one sequence for a particular call is just easier. Adding variation takes time. The dancers needs to learn the basic call and then experience the variety of calls that can precede and follow a call of interest. Experiencing this rich variety for each call taught takes time. Many clubs want the class to graduate by the WASCA festival and hence, adding variety to each call precludes learning all the calls by festival time.

Let me be clear, new dancers don't need to learn all variations of calls to dance at the club level. DBD is not the goal of classes. We want classes to teach people to dance with the clubs in the area. But dancers need to know that there are variations possible in each call and in each call that precedes and follows any given call. By way of example, class dancers need to experience spin the top from both men in the center of the wave and men on the end of the wave. Yes there are several other set-ups, but they need to experience at least two starting positions so that, if called later from an unusual position, they won't have the concept that there is only one way to start spin the top.

As you dance, if a square breaks down, consider whether or not the dancers were a victim of conditioning? You often hear a caller tell the floor "Don't anticipate". This is basically saying "Don't fall victim to conditioning". As you dance, realize that that a call may pop up that you didn't expect. Don't let that panic you. If it is really unusual, the caller will know that before he/she calls it and will allow extra time. Take that time to adjust to what the caller called and relish the different application of a call you already know.

Greetings, WASCA dancers

RDTA President's Message

by
Ken & Berni Ryder

This May, June and July provide a number of opportunities to round dance at a special events - and we hope to see and dance with many of you at several of them. Late May and June will start off with a special Spring Fling featuring Barbara and Wayne Blackford -- May 30-June 1 at "the Barn" and its beautiful floating wooden floor in Columbia SC [see flyer in this issue for details]. While we won't be attending since Ken is still recovering from his hip replacement surgery, we know several WASCA couples will be attending and we urge others to consider joining them for this outstanding dance opportunity.

Later in June we have the Roundalab Convention with evening dancing June 23-25 in Milwaukie, WI. In addition, there will be extensive round dancing at the National Square Dance Convention also in Milwaukie, WI -- June 26-29. [See the flyer in this issue]. July will offer additional round dancing special events with the annual ICBDA Convention in Milwaukie, WI -- July 10-13, and the 59th "Rockin' 60's" Annual Star Spangled Banner Festival at a new locale -- the Double Tree Hotel -- July 18-20. [Flyers for all of these events are included later in this issue.].

On Saturday July 27, RDTA will hold its annual Butterfly Ball at the Lincolnia Senior Center from 5-7:30 PM. Ken will be programming this phase II-IV round dance which will feature many dances newer round dancers, especially students, will enjoy. See the flyer in this issue and come fly with a number of your favorite RDTA cuers at this very special Ball.

While many of our local dance clubs will go dark during the summer, we hope you will enjoy dancing during May and the summer with your favorite local round dance and 2x2 clubs. In Maryland, the Filardo's are dancing on Tuesday evenings, the Buchanan's are dancing on Thursday evenings, the Kincaid's are dancing on Friday evenings and the Shotting's are dancing on Wednesday and Sunday evenings. In Virginia, Christina Eum is dancing on Monday evenings, the Buchanan's are dancing on Wednesday evenings, the Hopper's are dancing in the Charlottesville area on Tuesdays, the Springer's are dancing in the Richmond area, and the Ryders are dancing on Monday afternoons and Thursday evenings. In addition to these in-person dancing opportunities, Amy and Ken Shotting have continued to hold their special Saturday "virtual" dances and the Ryders have continued their "virtual" Monday night dances.

For those who are ready to get out, get down, and explore some exciting dancing, why not join us in enjoying our favorite "social contact sport" and consider taking some lessons to learn to round dance or "brush up" on some rhythms you're still not fully comfortable dancing. See the information available on current Round Dance classes in the section on Dance Classes later in this Calls 'N Cues Issue and then check with one of the leaders holding a class convenient for you to see when they will be starting to teach a new rhythm. All you need are your dancing shoes and a willing partner.

We look forward to seeing and dancing with you all on local and national dance floors in the following months.

63rd WASCA Spring Festival “Around the World In The Roaring Twenties” by Directors: Daryl & John Davis

We felt the Festival went very well. We had 685 as a final number, shy of our goal of at least 700. We were pleased the response of the Hilton that we were at, friendly, they handled things well, knowing we weren't coming back, and we were able to obviously make our food goal. We were not invoiced for anything extra, only the rooms that were supposed to be invoiced.

I want to thank, and I want the delegates to thank, all the dancers for eating at the downstairs buffet and taking advantage of that, that did save us, and we were very pleased about that.

From what we heard, people liked the opening ceremony, thought it was fun, had a good time at our lame play on Friday night, they seemed to enjoy that too.

We were happy to donate all our decorations to the New England convention. Those lovely people went and cleaned up everything, took everything down, took care of it, packed it away, and took it to New England. So if you go to any of the conventions or festivals in New England, you may see our decorations somewhere. We were pleased they were able to use them again.

I finally have all of the reports that have been turned in, put them together into a USB for the 2025 Festival Directors and do a zoom meeting with them to get them the information.

The Wonders of WASCA

As Seen By First Time Attendees
Sandy Smith. Aqua Squares

In the last quarter of 2023, my family of five completed the Plus level class in Southern Maryland's Aqua Squares Club. Members from our club and from the Belair Square Cats club encouraged us to attend WASCA.

With joy and laughter club members gathered around each other to share WASCA adventures. They offered suggestions to us for the weekend. Throughout the seasons they gifted attire among each other, which for us resulted in each member of my family having Square Dance outfits for the festival. The community, camaraderie, and family atmosphere we have encountered at every Square Dance event is a treasure.

All the excitement surrounding the event, along with our dear friends sharing with us, and no doubt, all they did behind the scenes to bring us to this day, still, we comprehended not the wonders which awaited us at the WASCA Festival.

Thursday afternoon we packed our poofies and headed to Alexandria, Virginia. The hotel we arrived at was the typical high rise building you see in cities. Walking into the hotel from the cool, dark, concrete parking garage, we arrived in an oasis of beautifully maintained interior gardens whose tall glass windows allowed the sun's warmth to replace the chill of the outdoors. We walked up the stairs and found a dance floor right there in the opening! The kids rose to their tiptoes and I'm not sure they are back to walking on their feet today. We eventually discovered WASCA had reserved a section of the building for various events that weekend. This made it possible to allow the children to roam freely, yet still be in the vicinity of the rest of their club. Multiple ball rooms and social areas were decorated in 1920 fashion. Lovely, kind, welcoming people from all over the United States were in attendance. Two and a half days full of opportunity to learn line dancing, round dancing, new levels of square dancing as well as practice in our current level and lastly, to dance the night away was before us. The feeling of immediate family and safety abounded. When the evening came, a picturesque environment evolved as attendees transformed into their dance costumes and 1920 outfits. What a sight to behold in a ballroom with beautiful chandeliers!

Each member genuinely wanting the other to have a good time, made it happen. One dear man said to us, "I'm just so glad you're here." Others commented on dances they attended. So many commented on the youth, "Did you see the youth! Those kids are incredible. They are having such a good time." The youth had a huge fan base which delighted in them and praised them like proud grandparents, aunts & uncles.

The youth treasured one another like brothers and sisters. Our children came to us at the end of each night telling of people who donated to give the youth an ice cream party and then a pizza party. The children came home with full hearts, stories to tell, and prizes. The event coordinators held glow in the dark dances while tossing a glow-in-the dark frisbee-necklace from one square to the another. They played bumping in - bumping out squares, pass the pool noodle squares, blackout google squares, and lemon squares. The folks who planned the youth events were very good at it. The children could have danced all night. They didn't want the day to end. They fell asleep each evening chatting away praising the friends they made, dances they learned, and the funny happenings of the day. The children commented that their peers were kind, talkative, welcoming, and so very fun.

Club adults, just like the children, not wanting the evening to end, gathered in various social areas of the hotel with snacks and games and welcomed anyone passing by to join.

We didn't realize it until WASCA, but we had never seen our caller square dance. He is always calling! We especially enjoyed the opportunity to sit in our callers advanced class and see how great he and his wife square dance together. Watching those advanced level dancers astonished us and oriented us to the possibilities ahead. So fun!!!

We found it fun to dance to various callers. They each have their own style and bring a different kind of fun to the dance. We especially enjoyed it when 2 or 3 callers teamed up to call. The songs, the dancing, and cheering were exciting. Respect and friendship abounded.

Extra activities left no room to want anything. There were after parties, die-hard dances, a "snack" floor in the hotel. We are still praising the event today. My son pulls out the karaoke speaker, puts on a deep voice and pretends to be a caller!! "Sweet Caroline bum bum bum", "allemande left", "weave the ring", "swing her boys", is REALLY getting old to the rest of us but he doesn't show any sign of fatigue.

We left the festival with overflowing grateful hearts for all the event was to each of us, for all the people who love others so well, for the people who so masterfully plan such a professional event, for our dear members whom we realized after the festival, had done so much to prepare us. In the square dance community, there is a blessed character and fellowship. We want to be just like you. Lively, lovely, contributing, and fun - just like you. With much appreciation for you and your faithfulness.

Become Involved

The Co-directors and Chief of Staff of the 2025 Duck & Dive are very thankful for all the volunteers who have stepped forward to date. We are still have some very needed positions yet to be filled. The MOST important are co-assistant directors that will become Festival co-directors in 2026. Without them there will be NO 2026 WASCA Festival (just like when WASCA announced in November 2023 that there would be no 2025 festival). We are looking for FOUR persons to share the fun of organizing and deciding the theme for WASCA 2026.

Hard copies of the “Duck & Dive in ‘25” flyer are now available and copies are being given to all the WASCA clubs. If your club has run out of flyers or it never received any, please email vicepresident@wascaclubs.com for a refill.

Square Dance Competition or Last Square Standing

The Last Square Standing will be held on Friday, June 28th from 2:00 – 3:30 p.m. in the Live Band Hall. Get your square of dancers ready to have a lot of fun. The idea of the competition is to see which square can be the “last square” on the floor, while squares get eliminated throughout the dancing. You will be able to sign up your square in the Dance Leaders Check-in Room located in the Wright Ballroom of the Hilton Hotel. Hope to see you “standing” on the dance floor!

SOLO DANCERS

A Solo Get-together will be held every morning from 10:00 to 11:00 a.m. in the SSD Hall. This is a fun time for solo dancers to meet other solo dancers attending the convention. It is a social time to learn about the convention, organize some dance partners for the day, get some recommendations for restaurants to visit, and make plans to join others in exploring Milwaukee. All these things can be done in a fun and social environment. Hope all Solos will try to attend these sessions.

Square Dance Updates

The 73rd National Square Dance Convention[®] will feature 152 Callers from across the Country. The Callers will be providing dancing from SSD through Challenge levels of dance. All these levels are being offered for your entertainment in the Baird Center. We will also have the Ghost Riders Band playing for your dancing pleasure every evening from 7:00 – 10:00 p.m. You do not want to leave the dance hall early because you do not want to miss their last song every night “Ghost Riders in the Sky”, a favorite of many dancers. Dance hours each day of the Convention will be from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. However, that is not the end of dancing. For those who would like more dancing, there will be After Parties each evening starting at 10:00 p.m. and ending at 11:00 p.m. We look forward to seeing you in a square on the dance floor!

Editor’s Note: These after parties are sponsored by organizations and/or recording companies. These sponsors get some of the best callers and cuers to call and cue for their after party. That gives the dancers the opportunity for some excellent calling and cueing.

59th Star Spangled Banner
Festival
ROCKING' 60s

July 18-20, 2024

Hello Everyone,

Summer will be here soon. Do you have all of your vacation plans in place? We still have some vacancies for the 59th Star Spangled Banner Festival! The dates are July 18, 19, 20, 2024. We're at a new location this year – The DoubleTree by Hilton located at Exit 20 on the Baltimore Beltway (Rt 695). So let's learn some things about this new place...

The Hotel has been totally upgraded within the past few years – which added the ballrooms that we'll be using. There's plenty of free parking and easy access to the local area. The on-site restaurant is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner every day. There's also a variety of restaurants within a short distance of the hotel. For those staying at the Hotel, the gym located at the rear of the building is available for your use. Just in case you want more exercise in addition to dancing!

All of the dance halls are on the same floor and relatively close to each other – so it will be easy to move between halls and easy to check out what's happening in the other halls. The rest and social area will be between the main halls. Also located there will be the 50/50's and pre-registration. Our Second Hand Rose room will be located down the hall from the Welcome Desk. With restrooms located right next door, to try on your new outfits.

The sleeping rooms completed their upgrade this year... we saw all of the boxes of new furniture! All furnishings in every room are new. There's also a microwave and refrigerator in each room – for snacks or leftovers.

If you haven't decided to come this year – please don't let the new location stop you. The surroundings might be different, but the halls will be filled with friendship and fun as always!

Visit our website for both the dance registration and hotel reservations. Visit www.marylandsquaredancing.com, and use the SSBF tab.

It's going to be a weekend full of dancing to some of the best callers and cuers around. So make Star Spangled Banner Festival part of your summer plans... and we'll see you in July!

35th Virginia State Convention “Let the Good Times Roll”

Victoria and Paul Kosar
2025 Convention Directors

Hello Dancers!

Well, believe it or not, Paul and I and our fantastic committee are already working on the 2025 Virginia State Convention. Our theme is “Let the Good Times Roll” and we’re hoping to have a lot of Good Times! It will be held February 20-22, 2025 at the Holiday Inn Virginia Beach/Norfolk Hotel and Conference Center. This is the same hotel as our convention last February. Our committee has met twice already and we’re planning some fun things at the convention. We will also be having a “Let the Good Times Roll” Wednesday night event before the convention so put that on your calendar and plan to come early. More details to follow.

If you weren’t able to attend the convention last February, the hotel is really nice and we had plenty of room for dancing in all the halls. We even had the Kountry Kickers, a clogging group, perform at our opening ceremonies and we’re planning on doing that again as a lot of people really enjoyed it. We also had a clogging instructor and folks had a great time trying out clogging. SSD will also be on the schedule for dancing. Last February we had 12 callers, 9 cuers, the line dance instructors, the contra instructor and the clogging instructor who voluntarily gave their time and talent to provide the great dancing. What a line up! There was a lot of dancing going on.... And next February will be no different! We hope more dancers will join us at our next convention making it a big success.

We’re always looking for volunteers to help out, so just give a call or email and let us know how you would like to help. We need you! When scheduling your club booster dance, contact Janet Kelly at janet.f.kelley@verizon.net. She will be happy to get you on the booster dance schedule. Jamie Butler is coordinating decorations, if you have any Mardi Gras decorations you would like to loan or donate, email her at JamieB1693@gmail.com. Clay Fogler will be creating our slideshow at the Afterparty, please send him any pictures you have of your club and/or dancers. His email is cpfogler@gmail.com. Darrella Deubel will be taking ads again for our program book. They are so inexpensive you won’t believe it. Her email is thedeubels@cox.net. And of course, most importantly, we would like you to register for the convention as soon as possible. Brenda Krabbenhoft is our Registrar and she would love to hear from you. Her email is Brendaw5@gmail.com if you have any questions about registering.

If you need any flyers to hand out at your clubs, just shoot us an email at vjkosar@gmail.com and we’ll send them right out. We need help promoting the 2025 convention. We are so looking forward to February and we’re grateful to have one more opportunity to be a part of the Virginia State Convention!

The 74th National Square Dance Convention® committees spent March 15-16 hard at work preparing for the 2025 National Convention. Committee members participated in a virtual city tour presented by the Shreveport-Bossier Convention & Tourist Bureau and a walking tour of the Shreveport Convention Center - the site of the 74th NSDC. On Saturday, March 16th the 74th NSDC Committee Chairman presented progress reports to the National Executive Committee (NEC) Phase Advisors, team members of the 73rd NSDC from Milwaukee and Wisconsin, the 75th NSDC from Waco, Texas, and interested convention volunteers. During the breakout sessions, the Chairman provided updates on current accomplishments and outlined their plans for the next 15 months leading up to the main event to be held June 25-28, 2025. The 74th NSDC Wild Side Team also participated in a working lunch and dinner with their counterparts to share ideas.

Some attendees made time Thursday and Friday evenings to support the Louisiana Square Dance Association's State Convention dances. The event was also held in Shreveport on March 14-16, with the two groups joining forces for the Pre-Convention Saturday night kickoff dance at the convention center.

The highlight of the Pre-convention weekend was the kickoff dance Saturday night featuring square dance callers from four different states – Larry Marchese from Colorado, Tim Tyl from Texas, Joey Duhamel from Louisiana, and Phil Moorehouse from Arkansas – as well as Louisiana round dance cuers – Martin Philyaw and Ken Vantiger providing us with 3-1/2 hours of great dancing. There were 24 squares present during the kickoff dance to show their support for the 74th NSDC! Team Wild Side. There were plenty of tired feet by the end of the busy weekend!

Make sure to check out the 74th NSDC Facebook group's post regarding General Chairman Ted and Tonia Hofmeister's on-air interview with KSLA 12 News in Shreveport on March 6th to promote the Pre-Convention activities and upcoming 2025 National Convention, including what consideration goes into selecting a convention center for the National Square Dance Convention®.

The interview for the KSLA Café segment was such a success television station KTBS asked the Hofmeisters, along with fellow dancers from the Southern Swingers Square Dancers Club, caller Joey Duhamel and round dance cuer Ken Vantiger, to provide a demonstration dance March 13th.

Leading up to the Pre-Convention weekend, the Hofmeisters were on the road to help promote the 74th NSDC attending dances with the Pleasant Hill Promenaders in Southaven, Mississippi, with caller Robert Townsend on Feb. 26th and in Biloxi to celebrate the 69th Annual Mississippi State Square and Found Dance Association Festival held March 1-2 with caller Mike Bramlett and cuer Connie Wise. We had four couples from the 74th NSDC on hand to dance at the Mississippi Festival. Our General Chairman also visited with the Casual Corners in Slidell, Louisiana, on March 3rd with caller Harry Case. If you have a dance coming up make sure to message Ted and Tonia at tedhofmeister75@gmail.com, our General Chairman and committee members try to attend as many events as possible.

Thomas Anthony Misciagna

November 13, 1954 – April 25, 2024

Tom Misciagna passed away at home on Thursday April 25, 2024 at about 7:40 pm. Tom and Peggy took square dance lessons shortly after Tom's diagnosis of early-onset Alzheimer's. They learned Mainstream and became members of Rawhide & Ruffles in Manassas, Virginia in 2016.

Music and movement are very helpful for Alzheimer's patients. Tom and Peggy went to WASCA in 2018 and enjoyed dancing Relaxed Mainstream, and meeting and observing other dancers. They continued to dance every week, only interrupted by the Covid pandemic,

They moved to Florida in 2023. Tom still remembered how to dance when they visited recently, and really enjoyed the music and his friends! Tom was one of the nicest, happiest guys you'd ever meet! He always had a smile and a hug for everyone! We're all better people for having known him, and we miss him greatly!

Load the Boat

Here's a call that everyone loves but not everyone is comfortable with dancing. Whether you've been dancing Plus for a long time, or just graduated from a class, there is lots to love about this call.

Here's the definition: LOAD THE BOAT
Timing: 12

Starting formation: Lines of four, with centers facing in, and the ends of each line facing the same (in or out) direction.

- The end dancers move forward around the outside, passing right shoulders with three moving end dancers, and turn one-quarter in (90 degrees) to stand beside the third person passed, facing the center of the set as a couple. Simultaneously,

- The center four dancers Pass Thru, turn their backs to their momentary partners, Partner Trade with their new partners, and Pass Thru.

Styling: The end dancers, while moving on the outside, leave enough room for the center dancers to work comfortably.

Note that there are two separate parts of the call, the ends and the centers. Each has four actions for their respective position.

The ends move forward and pass three people (3 parts) and then face into the square (4th part). Rarely does a dancer make a mistake on the end part of this call.

The centers also have four parts (1) pass through, (2) turn backs to their momentary partner (3) partner trade and (4) pass through.

When dancers are performing this call, the most likely error to occur is that the centers pass through and then facing the wrong direction. Part of this is a timing issue. If the centers pass through and then look for their momentary partner, and then face away from them – lots of time has passed. When I teach this call I prefer to teach the centers to look at their box of four, and start by doing a Pass Out e.g. you pass through and face out of your box of four. The advantage is you are doing the first two parts like one call, and you can see where you are going before you start to move. So why isn't this the definition of the call? There are a couple of reasons, first Load the Boat is a four-part call. If you treat the first part as a Pass Out, it would become a three-part call. So let's call this a Pass Through (touch hands) and Turn Away (e.g. Face Out). The second reason is "Pass Out" is an Advance call. Personally, I don't care what you call it, I just want you to THINK about the movement so you don't turn the wrong way.

The next thing the centers are likely to struggle with MAY be the partner trade (3rd part). Why you ask? Well from normal facing lines if the centers pass out they become a normal couple (boys on left, girls on right) so the partner trade is normal. BUT, if the call starts from ½ Sashayed lines, then the partner trade has the boy on the right – e.g. not a normal position for a partner trade and hence harder.

Consider these sequences. The first two are easy, the next one is medium hard, the last one is very hard

1. HEADS Lead Right,
Touch 1/4,
Split Circulate,
BOYS Run
Load the Boat,
Pass the Ocean,
Explode the Wave,
Trade By
Eight Chain 3,
Allemande Left

2. HEADS Square Thru,
Put Centers In,
Cast Off 3/4
Load the Boat,
CENTERS Separate Around 1 to a Line,
Grand Swing Thru
Hinge & Roll,
Pass Thru,
ENDS Fold,

Note: (2) is a little harder than (1) because the partner trade is Half Sashayed

3. HEADS Lead Right,
Veer Left,
Chain Down the Line,
Load the Boat
Swing Thru,
Acey Deucey,
Recycle
Everybody Do the Centers Part Load the Boat,
CENTERS Trade
ENDS Cross Fold & Roll,

Note: (3) is harder because the square is divided into two mini-squares doing the center part of the call

4. HEADS Lead Right,
Swing Thru,
Acey Deucey,
BOYS Run
3/4 Tag the Line,
GIRLS Face Out,
Load the Boat
Left Swing Thru & Roll,
Dixie Grand,
Allemande Left,
Promenade Home

Note: (4) is very hard because it's from a non-standard formation, the boys are doing the center part AND the boys are already in a wave to start.

Ask your caller to try calling Load the Boat from different formations!

Thirty-two clubs were represented at the May 5, 2024 WASCA Delegates virtual meeting. Currently there are fifty clubs that are members of WASCA.

What is your club doing this summer? We know many clubs stop dancing or modify their schedule starting in June. For instance, at the Delegates meeting, Frederick County Promenaders noted they will be dancing a few times this summer on a Sunday afternoon. The Merry Notes said they were closing down their season with three dances in May and stating up again in September.

We hope that your summer plans include dancing. We plan to take a road trip to the 2024 National Square Dance Convention in Milwaukee and then to have a family reunion in Indiana after the Convention. Other people noted they would be traveling to other special dances this summer. A couple of Festivals that don't require long distance travel include the Star Spangled Banner Festival and the Tennessee State Convention. If interested in the Star Spangled Banner you need to get your hotel registration soon as the price will go up. Tennessee also has a great Convention in August. Both dances have great callers and cuers. Staying socially active is important as it can help prevent social isolation and loneliness which are both linked to negative health outcomes. Keep on dancing this summer.

The 2023/2024 WASCA fiscal year is fast approaching its end. The 2024/25 club membership renewals are due by the end of May. If you need a membership form go to www.wascaclubs.org and fill out the fillable PDF membership form, save it to your computer with a new name and then print it out and mail it with a $25 check made out to WASCA. The information from the membership form will be used to enter the times the club dances; the location where the club dances; the caller and the cuer, and the clubs info contact in the WASCA Club Directory found in Calls 'n' Cues and on the Web. We also use the current information to get a contact email and phone number so we know how to contact someone if we or someone else needs information. The membership information and annual dues are needed to keep your insurance coverage current.

The 2024/2025 WASCA Delegates' Meeting will be held on September 29, 2024; February 16, 2025 and May 18, 2025. Please mark your calendars now.

Is your club dancing this summer? If so, please let us know ASAP so that we can get the information in the Calls n Cues Directory and on the Web page. AQUA SQUARES

Paula Ropshaw

What a wonderful time our club had at this year's festival. We were thrilled to have some of our newest dancers, the Smith family, Tammi Apessos Riki Hudson at the festival. We had 30 members in attendance. Our club picture, taken each year at the bottom of the escalator was beautiful and our group dinner was so much fun.

We all worked hard to make a beautiful basket with the theme of SOUTHERN MARYLAND hoping whoever got it would come spend some time in our beautiful county. Guess what?we won it. My husband put a few tickets in every basket and we won it. I wonder if that has ever happened before??

We dance Friday nights at the Southern Community Center in Lusby, MD. Look for our summer schedule her in the Calls N Cues. We know we are a long way away, so make a day of it. (or a whole weekend). Sample our delicious seafood restaurants on Solomons Island, shop their local stores, dance with us and then stay at one of the marvelous BNBs on the island. See you on the dance floor.come one down and visit.

See you on the dance floor.

MDSDF representatives will come to promote the Star Spangled Banner festival that will be held on July 18th, 19th, and 20th. Please sign up to support the dance and MDSDF. Mark Franks will be calling and Ken Ryder will be cuing. On June 8th please come to our " Ice Cream Social " dance. BIZZY BEES

Ann Brownell

The Bizzy Bees welcomed Spring with our Poor House Dance--darn IRS!!!! We were happy to have an old club member and dear friend, Mona Shaw, join us and dance. It's always nice to see old friends! Chris Stacy did a great job in calling. Our April 23rd dance will be Tip Toe Through The Tulips-anyone have a Ukulele???? Will Tiny Tim make an appearance? Maybe it will be Mac? Our May 14th dance will be a May Pole dance and then we will end the year on May 28th with our traditional Ice Cream Social. We love to have guests and encourage people to dance with us. If you have any questions contact Dave and Teresa Harrington at 571-306-7975.

*Bizzy Bees
Mardi Gras Dance Attendees*

The Bizzy Bees were very saddened to learn of the death of our long time Caller and good friend, Mac McCall, on Sunday May 12. Mac was a very important part of our Bee family. We had much fun over the years dancing to Mac's beautiful baritone voice and his vast array of music. Mac was a kind and gentle man and he will be greatly missed. Our prayers and sympathies go out to Mac's family, including his taw, Phyllis, who joined him for most of the dances he called.

(The variations are due to the remodeling at Grinspring), Please check the schedule in the Calendar of Events or Organization Dance Schedules sections to determine where the dance is being held on a specific day

Since there is a wide range of square dance experience from brand new dancers to experienced pros we alternate tips between teaching a class for brand new dancers and dancing the full mainstream program. LAKE OF THE WOODS

Susan Thomas

February, March and April bring to mind crocus, daffodils, tulips, flowering shrubs, dogwood blossoms, and green grass along with March winds and April showers. Nature comes to life in spring. These have been lively months for Lake of the Woods Square dance members and students as well. Sixteen students have been mastering plus lessons under the able instruction of Gene Chamberlain. For several lessons, Dick Unser, or Steve and Linda Futato introduced new calls and directed student dancing when Gene was unable to come. As I write this, the students have one more lesson and graduation to anticipate. Many of the students have attended dances and the callers and members have endeavored to help them have fun and dance successfully.

*Lake of the Woods
2023 Lessons*

Some Lake of the Woods members participated in the VASARDA Convention held in Virginia Beach on February 15th--16th.

*Lake of the Woods
VASARDA Attendees*

Students as well as club members attended the WASCA Convention in Alexandria on March 15th--16th and experienced dancing to different callers.

*Lake of the Woods
WASCA Attendees*

Meanwhile, at Lake of the Woods Club members danced to tips called by Bob Clinebell on February 23rd and again on March 8th. Bob also led several line dances to the delight of many. Ben Brown called the tips on March 22nd. Each of these callers included some mainstream and some plus tips to accommodate the students who joined members for these dances. At each of these dances callers added new plus tips that the students had learned to help them practice and feel included and confident. Gene Chamberlain called for the dance on April 12th, and many students were in attendance.

Nancy Tuttle signs club members up to bring refreshments to dances. For March she had the clever idea to celebrate the mathematical pi day with pie and ice cream. She arranged for various members to bring seven pies. Others, then provided ice cream to be enjoyed along with the pies. Members enjoyed this special touch to make the refreshments seem even more special than usual. Thanks go to all club members who have faithfully provided wonderful refreshments for all of the dances.

Gene Chamberlain will be calling again on both April 26th and May 10th. Both of these dances and remaining lessons will be at the Lower Level of the Clubhouse since the Lake of the Woods Players will be using the Community Center for their production of "I Hate Hamlet". (May 3,4,10 and 11 at 7 PM and May 5 and 12 at 2PM). There will be no dance on May 24th because of the Memorial Day weekend.

Gene Chamberlain will see whether we are up to clever alterations in calls again on May 31st and June 14th. Summer casual will be in effect beginning in June for the summer dances.

Have a healthy, relaxing summer! No doubt part of it will be hot, but come and join Lake of the Woods Square Dance Club for dancing in the air conditioning!
