The Editor's Desk

I have writer's block and cannot really come up with something to write this month. Therefore I want to strongly recommend you read three of the columns in this issue

First - the last paragraph in the President's Corner about the Callerlab Proposal. This proposal is going to affect all of us in the not to distant future. If you want to learn more about it do a Search on "callerlab proposal" which will provide several links to what is the same ~1 hour video from the 73rd National Square Dance Convention in Milwaukee.

Second - Gary Felton's NCASDLA President's Message on etiquette. This is a subject which many of us long time dancers notice subconsciously, even if we are not aware of it. I am not sure why it seems to have dropped out of classes, but it is an opportunity for angels to engage with students and make them aware of square dancing ediquitte.

Finally, Dick Otis's Choreo Corner. Even though I have been dancing for over 20 years, I always learn things from his column. For example, do you know the difference between an allemande left and a left turn thru? I didn't and Dick's column explained it. (Incidentally the Google description of left allemande is NOT accurate.) Enjoy his column and be sure to let him know you read and like it.

Well that is it for this writer's blocked column

Until next issue

(WASCA Presidents 2023-2024)

At the WASCA Board meeting on Oct 27th two changes were approved. Because of ongoing health issues, Joe Saltel has informed us that he will be unable to call at the WASCA Festival in 2025. Joe told me, "I still have pulmonary embolisms in my left lung which remains partially collapsed and causes shortness of breath and fatigue. My pulmonologist wants me to remain on Eliquis and not fly anywhere. Unfortunately because of this news I have to cancel the WASCA weekend next March." Bill Harrison has agreed to take Joe's place.

The Board has eliminated the last sentence in the information on proper square dance attire. Square dance attire is not required after 6pm, but dancers are expected to dress responsibly.

Make your reservations for both the Festival and Hotel as soon as possible.

As most of you have heard, CALLERLAB has a suggestion that we reorganize our entry programs for the Square Dance Activity into two square dance programs each consisting of 50 calls. The first program, what today are the promoted Basic/SSD/Mainstream events and the second program what today are promoted as Plus events. The caller lab Board of Governors believe this change will eliminate the current confusion between all of our current programs. For more information go to the caller lab website (<https://callerlab.org/>) and look at "THE PROPOSAL' Express your concerns and thoughts to your CALLERLAB member callers.

The information above came from the USDA News, Oct-Dec Issue.

NCASDLA
President's Message
By Gary Felton

Etiquette

I was talking with a long-time dancer and she indicated that a lot of dancers don't learn etiquette during class and they never seem to pick it up later. Back when we only had 10 classes (including first nighter and graduation), the caller took about two minutes to discuss etiquette at the start of the lesson in about three (of the 10 lessons). I learned some things that don't apply any longer; for instance, "don't hold on to the lady's hand all the way thru a star thru". You may knock her hair down. This was when bee-hive hair dos were in style. I'm taller now (I was 12 when I took lessons) and that style of hair do has gone by the wayside.

In light of this long introduction, I went online and looked at articles on etiquette and I've tried to present things that are a general consensus of several articles. I also try to present some "why" of some items. Herewith is some collected internet wisdom on square dance etiquette.

Atmosphere

We want the atmosphere at a dance to clearly convey a message of welcome, friendship, comfort, inclusion & acceptance, and safety. Be friendly to everyone. Give a warm greeting, and introduce yourself—especially to new dancers and those you don't know. A good way to ensure a friendly atmosphere is to always consider yourself a host to all other dancers. Friendliness comes from within and can best be described as your interest in others. So, relax and have fun! To quote a fellow caller, "Don't stress, it's a recreational activity". It's not a competition. Many of the topics below impact the feeling of the dance.

Cliques

Clique: a small, exclusive group of people. A somewhat derisive term.

Dance in different squares, not always with the same group! Make sure everybody feels included.

Do not arrange squares more than once in an evening. It is best to not arrange a square at all. Dancers that are not in a set square may feel excluded.

Make it a point to move around the room and dance with LOTS of different people. Remember that "a stranger is a friend you have not yet met." Experienced dancers, think back on your newbie days - and be willing and even eager to dance with our new dancers. Getting to know new people (class members or visitors) makes them feel accepted and welcome. This leads to them joining the club and staying in square dancing.

Clothing

In the past, men have been advised to wear long-sleeved shirts. The reason is that most people don't enjoy grabbing a sweaty arm. With changes in heating and air conditioning and in how we dance, this has been relaxed. Please use good judgement. I strongly advise wearing a long sleeved shirt at a festival or at any special dance. If you are visiting another club, wear a long sleeved shirt for your first visit and see how other club dancers in the host club are dressed.

Ladies dress has/is evolving. Two decades ago, square dance dresses and crinolines were a requirement. Today, dresses, long skirts, and pants are acceptable at many club dances. As with the men (above), if you are visiting another club, wear a dress or skirt for your first visit and see how other club dancers in the host club are dressed. Ladies should avoid wearing excessive jewelry. It can hurt.

Good dancers slide their feet and take small steps. Sliding is accomplished much easier with smooth-soled, typically leather shoes.

Yellow Rocks

We want the atmosphere to be comfortable. For some people, “yellow rock” is not comfortable. This is an evolving custom and there are discussions that urge callers to avoid calling yellow rock. Conversely, some dancers will feel that you are staid and stand-offish if you refuse a yellow rock. It’s a conundrum and I don’t have a good solution. Be aware of the various feelings about yellow rock and be careful until you get to know the dancers.

How we dance

Arrive on time.

Square up promptly when the music starts or at the caller's request. Bear in mind that one can be prompt without running.

Wear your name tag so dancers can be on a first-name basis and to encourage friendly fellowship.

Join the nearest square that is forming. Walking past a square that is in need of a couple is a bit of a snub even if you don’t think of it that way. Additionally, don’t leave a square once you have joined it. That feels like a snub and is considered rude. Obviously, if you become ill or an emergency arises, that takes precedence.

Don’t walk through the middle of one square to get to another. Those people may be introducing themselves to each other or just chatting, waiting for the other squares to fill.

Introduce yourself and your partner to others in the square if you don’t know them. Thank them for dancing with you after the tip.

Ask someone to dance with you. Do not get on the floor and expect the caller to find you a partner.

Listen quietly during all instructions from the caller. Let your fellow dancers hear all the professional instruction that they have come to hear. They have paid to dance to this caller. If you keep them from hearing the caller, you keep them from dancing to the caller. You might as well stick your hand in their pocket and take out money, because they have paid for the dance experience and you are stealing it from them.

Let the caller be the teacher. Resist the temptation to explain a call to others in your square. I have heard many “creative” definitions and descriptions of calls. After the tip is over, mention to the caller that a particular call gave your square some trouble. The caller may ask some questions or may have seen much of it and handle the issue in the next tip. Leave it to the caller’s judgement as to how to handle it.

Thank everyone in your square at the end of a tip. They did contribute to your fun. In addition to applauding the caller and thanking your fellow dancers at the end of each tip you should personally speak to and thank the caller before leaving the dance. If you are a visitor, you should also make a point of speaking with a club officer. One caller in this area emphasizes this and I really appreciate his dancers. One couple in our area always speaks to me after a dance and I always look forward to speaking with them for at least a few seconds.

Try not to talk while announcements are being made. Give the speaker the same consideration you would want if you were speaking.

Keep your squares tight. Otherwise, you may fall behind the music by taking too many steps. Your lines may be too far away. Remember, the next call is usually with the person you are looking at, so don’t get too far from the person you are looking at. This applies to lines and facing couples. If you are promenading, look to see where your opposite is. If the man can’t reach out sideways and touch the opposite man, then you are probably too far away. If you’re too far away, the woman is farther away than you are and she has to cover a longer distance than you in the same time, so she has to run. Don’t make the women run to keep up with you!

Maintain ‘touch’ in a square. Use quick taps or touches as you pass other dancers. This helps everybody maintain their positions in the square and will help you stay alert to your own position and direction. Watch an advanced or challenge tip (Search “advanced or challenge square dance video”) and you’ll see that the most successful (and relaxed and confident) dancers are constantly touching hands on both sides of them as they dance. They are not grasping a hand, but rather, just touching or tapping.

Touch lightly and offer some resistance with your turning arm when doing “arm turn” calls (left allemande, turn thru, etc.). In waves, gently touch fingers and think “palm to palm” instead of clasping hands. DON’T GRAB, CLAMP DOWN OR HOOK

YOUR THUMBS. Never push, shove, or hold on too long to another dancer. We all need to analyze whether we are being too strong in arm turns and hand holds. A few years ago, a lady in our club was dancing with a new dancer and he gripped so tightly that he dislocated her thumb. She no longer dances. Note – Be aware if a fellow dancer in your square has a "Do Not Spin" or "Do Not Swing" sign attached near their name badge.

Be aware of the impact "flourishes" may have on other dancers. Your fellow club members may be familiar with extra styling you use and may do similar things themselves, but new people, be they new class members or guests, are completely unaware of the extra twirls, leg kicks, hip bumps, etc. These extra movements can cause confusion for new dancers.

If your square breaks down, square up quickly and make lines. If it is easy to do, get your original partner. If not, don't worry about it, just make lines and start dancing again.

If your square breaks down during a singing call, square up with your current partner. Leave it to the caller to get you back to dancing with the song.

In square dancing, one late couple or person may mean that three other couples or seven people must sit out. By leaving early, you are telling the other dancers and caller that you did not have a good time at the dance. The final tip is just as important as the first or middle tips. Many callers save their favorite music for the last tip. It might be a soft sweet love song or it might be an earth shaking, dancing on the ceiling number. Plan to spend the complete evening when you come.

At the end of the dance the hall usually must be swept and chairs have to be put away. Sometimes a kitchen must be cleaned up, and several other small chores must be accomplished. Responsible club members don't just walk out after the dance; they stay until all the work is done.

As our building staff get pickier, we have had to get out of our buildings quicker. I sometimes only have 5 minutes to get out of the building before the staff is standing in the doorway glaring at me. This creates a small conflict. Many callers don't like dancers to be putting away chairs and tables while the caller calls the last tip. It is sometimes noisy and distracting. Unfortunately, the pressure to get out of the building exacerbates this conflict. I don't have a solution for this issue.

Also, make it your personal responsibility to welcome, visit with, and say good-bye to every visitor.

Mistakes

Overlook mistakes made by others. Everybody makes them. Yes, even you! Be supportive. There will be times when you will need to gently guide your out-of-place neighbor back into position. Please try to be subtle when you do. This begs the question "How do I lead a nervous and/or self-conscious dancer?" The short answer is subtlety and gently. When I cloverleaf, I slightly push my partner's hand away from me as I make my turn. When I do a partner trade, I give a very slight tug on my partner's hand moving my hand backwards between us. This pulls my partner toward me; the way to turn on a partner trade. There are many of the small movements that suggest to my partner which way to turn. Let me emphasize that my hand hold is very gentle and the movement is an inch or two.

The goal of square dancing is to have fun, but we all make mistakes. If mistakes are made or a square breaks down, it wastes time and energy getting angry with yourself or anyone else. Please remain calm so others are encouraged to keep trying and practicing. If errors are made, gently guide your neighbor back into place, if possible, but don't push or pull another dancer. I have seen a dancer put hands on the shoulders of another and push them into the correct place. This thoroughly confuses the dancer being pushed. It is embarrassing to the dancer being pushed and some people get very angry when they are physically moved. Avoid it. If the entire square breaks down (no one knows where to go), it is best to form lines or square your set and start all over again. If your partner or someone else goes the wrong way, let it happen. A broken square is preferable to a wrestling match.

Other

Do not drink alcoholic beverages or eat garlic just before attending. Don't come to a dance, workshop or class if you have been drinking or under the influence of drugs, be they legal or not. Square dancing requires your best mental and physical alertness. Your coordination must be at its very best. Should you be suspected of being "under the influence" you may be asked to leave.

Be sure to shower or bathe before attending.

Greetings, WASCA dancers

Yes, autumn has finally appeared with leaves changing color and beginning to fall and weather cooling as we try to remember to eliminate daylight savings time. by turning back our clocks. We have enjoyed a return to our regularly scheduled club dances especially with all dancers returned from various summer vacations and travels. Amy and Ken Shotting have a full dance schedule with clubs dancing on Wednesday and Sunday evenings in the Catonsville MD area and a monthly phase IV-VI dance on Saturday at the Westowne Elementary School in Catonsville. Barbara and Tom Buchanan have club dances on Wednesday evenings at the Lincolnia Senior Center in Alexandria VA and Thursday evenings in MD. Dom and Joan Filardo are still dancing on Tuesday evenings in southern MD until Dom regrettably retires this spring. Eileen and Chip Hopper have their club dance on Tuesday evenings in the Charlottesville VA area while Calvin and Barbara Crofford's club dances on Thursday evening in Newport News VA. Finally Christna Eum is dancing Monday evenings at Herndon Senior Center and Berni and Ken Ryder have their Thursday evening club in Annandale VA and dance Monday afternoons at Greenspring Senior Community in Springfiedl VA.

Now, we all are looking forward to a wonderful upcoming Holiday Season. A very special event in the WASCA area is the Annual Toys for Tots Square and Round Dance, sponsored by NCASDLA and the USMC Reserve. This year's 49th annual dance will be on Sunday, December 8 at a new locale -- the Glenmont United Methodist Church, 12901 Georgia Avenue Silver Spring Md. from 2-5PM, Come on down, bring a toy to support the USMC drive to support local kids and enjoy some fun "seasonal " round and square dancing all afternoon. Butch and Roberta Bloxom, Christina Eum, and Berni and Ken Ryder will be cueing all your favorite seasonal round dances, while callers Gary Felton, Virgil Forbes, Bill Harrison, Dick Otis, Chris Stacey, and Jim Wass will be calling exciting mainstream and plus squares. This dance will also be dedicated to the memory of Mac McCall, a long-time supporter of this very special 2x2 dance. Check the flyer (or cover) in this issue for more details.

Finally, don't overlook the opportunities for dancers to take some round dance lessons to learn a new rhythm, a different activity, or "brush up" on some rhythms you're still not fully comfortable dancing. The Shottings are offering classes in Maryland on Mondays in Catonsville and Thursdays in Eldersburg. The Hoppers are offering classes in the Charlottesville area on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The Ryders are offering an intermediate workshop and a basic class on Sundays in Annandale VA. See the information available on current Round Dance classes in the section on Dance Classes later in this Calls 'N Cues Issue and then check with one of the leaders holding a class convenient for you to see when they will be starting to teach a new rhythm.

We wish everyone a happy Holiday Season and hope to help celebrate this season by seeing and dancing with all our WASCA round dancer friends at the various local clubs and their special Holiday dances. What a wonderful way to enjoy this urgently needed glorious Holiday season..

Stay safe and well and we'll see you all on the dance floor.

Duck & Dive in '25 Report

by Directors
Steve Cunnion, Pat Marks, Fayette & Andy Stewart

The duck flock continues their swim to a successful festival. Registrations are over 320. We now have an assistant director, Lisa Alfred. She is now busy creating a theme for 2026 and looking for other assistant directors. So, step up to help her out!

The flooring contract is ready to be inked. Six dance halls will have hardwood flooring as the mainstream room already has hardwood (if needed, plastic flooring will supplement).

The dance schedule is in the making. This year there will be added 4 hours of aqua square dancing and four hours of hexsquare dancing. Again, there will be line dancing.

As for WASCA festive awareness, the Duck theme dances began September 20 at Lambda Squares. Then came two more dances at AquaSquares and Dorchester Squares where Ginny Fromel represented WASCA. Maggie Ciotti represented WASCA at both the Friendship Squares and Crossfires theme dances. This was followed by Duck dances at Ettseteras, Four Counties, Rawhide & Ruffles and Lake of the Woods. Later in October the Tom Thumbs and Busy Bees theme dances will be represented by Maggie Ciotti and Ginny Fromel.

A big surprise for us has been the creativity and excitement shown by both clubs and individuals. At Rawhide & Ruffles, a wonderful Duck cake was made as pictured in this edition of Calls n Cues. Lake in the Woods had a special glow-in-the-dark duck 50/50 raffle and donated the club share to the festival. Even without theme dances, clubs and individuals have been very generous. Several 50/50 winners have donated their winnings to the festival, At Belair Square Cats, several young dancers had a surprise raffle with all proceeds going to the festival.

The Duck Dance Picnic was an outstanding success with donates exceeded $1400. Our thanks go out to Chris Stacey for calling. The Duck Game Day was a bust. We thank all of those who donated but weren't able to come.

Nancy Stafford is selling raffle tickets for a beautiful square dancing quilt that was made just for this festival.

Duck 'n' Dive Duck, Duck, Goose

A duck isn't like a goose, but it's very much like a human when it's stressed, nesting or preening.\

Stressed ducks act like humans under stress, exhibiting similar symptoms such as lethargy, loss of appetite, weakness, weight loss, nausea, gastrointestinal upsets and depression. Likewise, frustrated ducks shake their heads, preen constantly or self-mutilate, much like frustrated humans.

Human parents decorate and furnish a special area for their offspring, exactly like the female duck (or hen) 'nests'. She collects nearby vegetation to fill a shallow depression, preparing a nest for her eggs.

Installing baby gates deters curious toddlers. Decoys like coyotes, swans or foxes keep ducks away on land, and large inflatables like whales, dolphins or alligators keep them out of pools.

Before swimming or sunning, humans apply sunscreen. Ducks preen with their beaks to clean their feathers and activate the preen gland to release an oily substance. The resulting waterproof insulation is so effective that the underlayer of feathers next to the skin will stay completely dry when the ducks are underwater.

While humans have limited peripheral vision, ducks can see almost 340 degrees around because their eyes are located on the sides of their heads. Their vision is far superior to humans'; they see distant objects far more clearly than we do.

Affectionate men and women sometimes become excited and loud, showing off for their partner; ducks bobble their necks up and down and quack loudly when affectionate. They also chirp or 'speak' to express liking, but they hiss or run away if they don't. Both species can create strong bonds with a mate.

Both ducks and children learn their names by repetition, and are easily trained by calling, asking or commanding. Some pet ducks socialize with their owners; they learn tricks and cuddle if taught. Water, balls and baby toys appeal to both, and both love non-citrus fruits like bananas, watermelons, plums, peaches and pears. Don't give Cheerios to ducks, however; they contain harmful ingredients.

Chasing a frightened duck is like chasing a rambunctious toddler: frustrating. Rather, approach the duck calmly and slowly, grasp it gently and securely by the neck and place one hand over each wing to settle it down. Although children love to be turned upside down, ducks hate being picked up by their feet, feathers or wings.

Entering a Kentucky Fried Chicken or Dunkin' Donuts is an aromatic delight for humans; the opposite for ducks is peppermint, apple cider vinegar and red pepper flakes.

The Male Wood Duck

The Miss America contest selects the most beautiful woman. The general consensus is that the male Wood Duck is the prettiest duck native to North America. His feathers shimmer with green, violet, brown and black with white highlights.

Convention and Festival News

Oxendine, Pladdys headline 2024 Indiana State Convention

FRENCH LICK — National callers Tony Oxendine and Jack Pladdys will be the callers for the 34th Indiana State Square and Round Dance Convention at French Lick Springs Hotel in French Lick, Indiana November 8, 9, and 10. It will be a royal gala with three days of dancing, fun, and friendship dancers won't soon forget.

Oxendine has been calling for 50 years and has performed across the country and the world. He and Jerry Story founded Royal Records in 1986, which has become a powerhouse in the square dance recording industry.

Pladdys has been calling for more than 40 years and records on the Royal Records Label founded by Oxendine. He has also called across the United States. Both Pladdys and Oxendine serve on CALLERLAB's Executive Committee.

These callers will headline the President's Gala on Nov. 8 from 8 to 11 p.m. and will also conduct a caller seminar Saturday morning. Dancing will take place from 10 a.m. to 10:30 p.m. Saturday and 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Sunday with a gospel finale featuring local and regional callers. Last year more than 30 callers and cuers participated.

Dancing levels include mainstream, SSD, plus, and advanced as well as phase II-VI rounds. Special events will include a singles meet and greet from 5 to 6 p.m. Friday, and an intro to hex workshop and a (friendly) squares competition focused on mainstream calls on Saturday. Vendors will also be there selling square dancing clothes and accessories.

Now's your chance to join our noble square dance kings for a magnificent time. For more information see insquaredanceconvention.com.

35th Virginia State Convention "Let the Good Times Roll"

Victoria and Paul Kosar
2025 Convention Directors

Hello Dancers!

Are you excited for the 2025 Virginia State Convention? We sure are! We have the best convention committee and they're all going to make sure you have a great time. The convention is February 20-22, 2025 at the Holiday Inn Virginia Beach/Norfolk Hotel and Conference Center. The hotel is the same one as last year and they have been doing a lot of renovations so it looks practically brand new. Our theme is "Let the Good Times Roll" and we want to make sure you're having Good Times. On the Wednesday night before the convention we'll have a "Let the Good Times Roll" Trail-in Dinner Dance. The flyer is attached so you can reserve your seat at the square dance. You don't want to miss it, so put it on your calendar and plan to come early. Our very own caller Matt Worley will be calling for us that night.

If you weren't able to attend the convention last February, plan to go this February. There is plenty of room for dancing in all the halls. The Kountry Kickers will perform for us once again. Last year we had many folks try clogging and really enjoyed it. We will also have SSD on the schedule again. In 2024 we had 12 callers and 9 cuers, line dance, contra and clogging instructors, all of whom voluntarily gave their time and talent to provide great music and dancing. We hope more dancers will come out and join us in February and make the 2025 VASARDA convention a big success.

Contact Victoria to schedule your booster dance at vjkosar@gmail.com. Jamie Butler is coordinating decorations, so if you have any Mardi Gras decorations you would like to loan or donate, email her at JamieB1693@gmail.com. New to our committee is Clay Fogler and he will once again be creating our slideshow at the after party. Please send him any pictures you have of your club and/or dancers. His email is cpfogler@gmail.com. If you would like to place an ad in our program book, Darrella Deubel will be accepting ads. Taking an ad is a great way to thank your club callers or cuers, members, friends, etc. The ad sizes are very inexpensive. Her email is thedeubels@cox.net. And of course, most importantly, we would like you to register for the convention as early as possible. Brenda Krabbenhoft, our Registrar, will be happy to receive your convention registration. Her email is Brendaw5@gmail.com if you have any questions about registering.

We'll also be doing the fun things like the 50/50, basket raffles, After Party, and the Second Hand Rose. It was so successful last year, we'll be doing it again. Contact Linda Furtato at lfurtato@yahoo.com if you need more information regarding donating dance attire. Otherwise just bring your items to the convention to donate. SuzyQ will also join us once again.

If you need any flyers to hand out at your clubs, we will send them to you. Just shoot us an email at vjkosar@gmail.com and we'll send them right out. We need help promoting the convention. Tell your friends, neighbors and clubs about the convention. We are looking forward to February and we're grateful to have one more opportunity to be a part of the Virginia State Convention. We can't wait to dance with you!

74th NSDC meets with NEC Advisors

Committee chairman and vice-chairman for the 74th National Square Dance Convention® met with National Executive Committee Advisors Wayne and Lura Wade, General Chairman for the 63rd NSDC held 2014 in Little Rock, and John and Dimple Williford, General Chairman for the 44th NSDC held 1995 in Birmingham, for a 90-day progress and planning meeting Oct. 4-5 at Promenade Hall.

Thanks to technology several committee members were also able to join the session virtually to hear and give their reports. The group took a break Friday afternoon for a facilities update at the Shreveport Convention Center. Afterward they enjoyed a catfish dinner at the Elks Club before participating in a benefit dance for the Northwest Louisiana Square and Round Dance Association in Promenade Hall featuring Texas caller Tim Tyl and Louisiana cuers Martin Philyaw and Ken Vantiger.

The group re-convened Saturday morning through the afternoon. Team Wild Side will have individual committee meetings with our General Chairman Ted Hofmeister prior to the next 90-day meeting Jan. 10-11 with our NEC Advisors for an in-depth operational review of convention plans, which will be roughly 5 months out from the convention June 25-28, 2025.

Important Convention Badge Information

In feedback from dancers who attended the 73rd National Square Dance Convention® in Milwaukee, requests were made for the first name to be printed more prominently on convention badges. In order to accommodate the larger first name, Rhonda Bailey, the 74th NSDC Registration Chairman, noted other information may have to be omitted. The Registration Committee may not be able to place a dancer's hometown on the badge as a result of the bigger type size, but we should be able to print the dancer's home state of residence.

In addition, Bailey emphasized if a dancer wants the number of conventions he or she has attended to be printed on the name badge, please notify registration with the information as soon as possible. She said not everyone included the number of conventions attended on the Registration Long Form, and if the information was not included or registration notified, it will not appear on the badge. ONLY name misspelling will be corrected at the convention, other information will not be cause for re-print.

If you wish to add conventions attended to your name badge or are unsure if you included the information on your registration form, please contact Cheryl Rush, 74th NSDC Assistant Registration Chairman, at peppercatt2@gmail.com or Rhonda Bailey at RhondaW252@outlook.com.

Welcome to Colorado ! Colorado's square dance history has deep roots due to the efforts of Dr. Lloyd "Pappy" Shaw in Colorado Springs. The Lloyd Shaw Foundation is still in existence today. Here is a little more information about Pappy from the website:

“Energetic, enthusiastic, and charismatic, Dr. Lloyd "Pappy" Shaw was an innovative educator whose dedication to American folk dance saved an important part of our country's cultural heritage. He taught high school English and served as principal at Cheyenne Mountain School in Colorado Springs, Colorado between 1916 and 1951, and was superintendent of the Cheyenne Mountain School District for the next 35 years. Always on the lookout for new school activities (rodeos, gliding, a jalopy club...), he searched out old dances of the American people – especially quadrilles, square dances, and round dances from the Rocky Mountain area – and taught them to the students in his school.”

“Lloyd Shaw's high-school exhibition team, the Cheyenne Mountain Dancers, toured the United States from 1939 until 1951. Their exuberant exhibitions stirred up great interest in dances which had almost disappeared. Soon Pappy was teaching a series of summer classes to educators and recreation leaders from all parts of the country. His name became synonymous with traditional American dances.”

With the influence of Pappy's exhibition teams, colleges such as CU and Colorado A&M (now CSU) started exhibition teams as early as the 1950's. CU had the Calico and Boots and Colorado A&M had the Aggie Haylofters. Some of the dancers from those groups are still dancing today with the Colorado exhibition groups The High Country Dancers and The Colorado Dancers. These 2 groups have traveled to many National Conventions, USA West, and State Festivals and will entertain you at the 2027 National.

Colorado dancers are proud of the fact that in 1992, the Colorado General Assembly adopted a house bill to make square dancing the official folk dance of Colorado and there is a dance in the Capitol rotunda every September to commemorate that bill.

Colorado also has the oldest active square dance club in the country with the Kilowatt 8's. They will be celebrating their 85th anniversary this year (2024). A remarkable accomplishment! Many Colorado square dance organizations are working to keep the best activity in the world alive. The Colorado State Square Dance Association is the State organization at the top of the regional organizations. There are quarterly meetings with all 4 of the regional council representatives to share ideas, information, and recruiting/retention ideas. They estimate that we have around 1,200 dancers in the state and are trying to brainstorm ways to keep that number of dancers and to grow the activity we love so much. So, as you can see, Colorado is rich in square dance history and is looking forward to hosting the 2027 National Square Dance Convention.

Peggy Lea Gosnell

May 12, 1948 - October 12, 2024

Peggy Lea Gosnell, nee Pearson, passed away on October 12, 2024, surrounded by family. Born on May 12, 1948, she was a life-long resident of Sudbrook Park. Peggy had a passion for animals and was lovingly known as the 'cat lady'. She will be greatly missed. She was a longtime avid member of the square dance community. She was a recent Board member of MDSDF. Although she has not danced recently due to health issues, she still stayed active in several clubs, Swinging Aces and Spinning Windmills. She was the person in charge of the MDSDF roster and SSB Patron lists until the last 2 years. Known for her quick wit and humorous antidotes, Peggy Lea was a treasured storyteller.

Deeply loved by her family and friends, she will be truly missed. Preceded in death by her devoted husband Douglas Gosnell Jr, sister Laureen Anderson, brother-in-law John Anderson and niece Jean Ellen Anderson. Peggy Lea is survived by her loving partner of 39 years Virgil Forbes, son Douglas Gosnell III, stepdaughter Kathryn Lloyd, step-grandchildren and grandchildren Brian, Erin, Alexis and Kaylea and great-granddaughter Aurora. She is also survived by nephews, Mark and Michael Anderson and great-nieces Ashley, Heather, Jackie, Brooke, Sabrina, Griffin, Sydney, Meara and Ellie Mei and great-nephew Tyler.

Those wishing may make contributions in her name to BARCS: Gifts in Tribute — Baltimore Animal Rescue and Care Shelter (BARCS)

A celebration of life will be held in the spring, the date will be announced at a later time.

Betty Jones

October 8, 2024

Betty Jones who has more recently been dancing DBD and Advanced died suddenly on October 8. She was due to carpool with a fellow dancer to Four County DBD. When she did not show up and was not answering her phone, a call was made to her community office and a check found her at home. Betty was a member of the MDSDF Board until recently. She has also been an active member of Crossfires, Ferris Wheelers, Four County Squares, Friendship Squares, Swinging Aces, and Spinning Windmills. Over the years she had suffered many injuries due to osteoporosis but never stopped dancing. Some may remember a severely bruised face she got from body surfing in Ocean City a couple of years ago. But that did not stop her for dancing. Betty was also active in animal rescue.

CHOREO CORNER

with Dick Otis

Basic Calls

Which Challenge Dancers

Winter is just around the corner. Now that fall classes are in full swing, it's time to review a couple of basic calls that often go wrong at higher level dances.

In the last Choreo Corner we talked about Square Thru from waves. Did that help anyone? Just curious. I have no idea how many dancers read Choreo Corner. Please do me a favor and send me a short email at dick.otis@me.com and let me know (1) if you read Choreo Corner and (2) if there are any topics you'd like me to cover in future issues.

I'm sure everyone, even the newbies, are OK with these following calls from standard application positions, e.g. the way you were taught. But what happens if they are called from unusual formations and arrangements?

Turn Thru

Certainly not hard right? Let's review the definition.

Starting formation: Facing Dancers

Dance action: In one smooth motion, dancers
Step to A Wave (but use forearm styling),
Right Arm Turn 1/2, and Step Thru.

The Ocean Wave Rule applies to this call.

Ending formation: Back-To-Back Dancers

The caveat "The Ocean Wave Rule applies" makes thing a little more difficult. This means the starting formation may also be a wave. In this case you get to skip the first part (step to a wave), you just adjust to a forearm grip and turn 1/2 (e.g. trade) and THEN Step Thru.

Of course, this call can be called as a Left Turn Thru as well.

Most of the time when I see a problem on the floor, the dancers step to a wave, arm turn and just stand there. When you do Turn Thru you must go back to the same spot you started from, but facing the opposite direction.

Allemande Left - everyone can do this of course, most of the time

Starting formations: Any formation where dancers can conveniently turn 90 degrees or less to face their corner.

Dance action: If necessary, dancers individually turn in place up to 90 degrees, so that the men are facing wrong way promenade direction and the women are facing promenade direction.

Left Arm Turn at least halfway around (180 degrees) until the men are facing promenade direction and the women are facing wrong way promenade direction.

Step Thru.

Comparison of Turn Thru and Allemande Left

For a Turn Thru (or Left Turn Thru) you must already be directly facing the other dancer. You step to the wave, arm turn 1/2, and step through.

For an Allemande Left, you first to turn towards your corner (up to 90 degrees), then do a Left Turn Thru and then adjust to face your partner

- boys facing the promenade direction (left shoulder towards the center) and
- girls facing the wrong way promenade direction (right shoulder towards the center).

Example Sequences and Comments:

1. HEADS go forward, Face Your Partner, Turn Thru, Allemande Left Would this be easy? Yes.

2. Heads Step to a Wave, HEADS Turn Thru
Can you do an Allemande Left from this formation? Yes, because the heads can turn 90 degrees and do the Allemande Left. Would someone call this? Probably not because it would be more difficult
3. HEADS Right & Left Thru, Lead Left, Swing Thru, Turn Thru Would this be easy? Yes.

Box the Gnat

Starting formation: Facing Dancers (man and lady only).

Dance action: Dancers step forward, join and then raise their right hands.

The lady steps forward and does a left-face U-Turn Back under the raised joined hands, as The man walks forward and around the lady while doing a right-face U-Turn Back. Each dancer ends in the other's starting position.

Ending formation: Facing Dancers with right hands joined in a handshake

Styling: Start with a handshake position. The joined fingers must be held so that the man's fingers may turn over the lady's fingers easily while still providing some degree of security or stabilization.

When dancers have an issue with this call, it's probably one of three things.

- (1) One or more of the dancers has a shoulder issue and can't raise their hands. The solution is to just do a right-hand tap, pass through and u-turn back.
- (2) After doing the call, one or both of the dancers over turn and are no longer facing each other.
- (3) After doing the call, the dancers are no longer holding a right-hand handshake which may made the next call more difficult to execute.

As a reminder, there are many clubs holding new dancer classes right now, and probably more starting in January. Please consider being an angel for a class. It will be most appreciated, and you just might re-learn something too.

LAKE OF THE WOODS

Annette Ferguson

The Lake of the Woods square dance lessons are in full-swing. Ten students gather on Tuesday evenings at the LOW Clubhouse lower level and are learning the Mainstream calls very quickly. Steve & Linda Futato and club President Dick Unser have attended Mike Sikorsky's caller school and are providing the instructions based on Mike's "Beginners Teaching Guide". Our club member "angels" partner with the students for wonderful results, laughter, and a fun time.

*Lake of the Woods
Class Dancing*

Breaks during lessons and Friday night dances are always interesting (and delicious) social interactions. It seems to be, literally, universal that square dancers are nice, friendly, and interesting people from all walks of life. Our club has three former military aviators along with teachers, an engineer, insurance agent, and other professions, skills, and endeavors. Some are surprised to learn that square dancing is done in other countries... and always called in English.

On September 19th, the square dance club did a demonstration dance at Jubilation, a senior independent living facility, in Fredericksburg, VA. We had two squares of dancers who danced some tips for the residents and also danced with the residents to help them learn some calls and enjoy square dancing and the many benefits this healthy activity can provide. Charlie Shoemaker, a resident of Jubilation, was our caller.

*Lake of the Woods
Jubilation Demonstration Dance*

WASCA representatives joined us for our "Duck & Dive in '25" promotional theme dance on October 11th with Charlie Shoemaker calling some lively tips that included interesting and unusual formations. Half of the funds from the 50/50 drawing were donated to WASCA's fund-raiser for their annual big event March 20-22, 2025. A group of homeschoolers and their parents from Warrenton also joined us for this dance adding beauty, flourishes, and enthusiasm with their "young blood". One young man has already attended caller school and some of them are taking advanced lessons. It's a delight when they occasionally join us. We were excited to have 4 squares of dancers supporting our WASCA Theme Dance. All of the dancers were wearing duck necklaces and went away with glow-in-the-dark ducks.

Our Spooky Halloween Dance was on October 18th. This is always a fun dance with dancers dressing up in Halloween costumes... and our caller Charlie Shoemaker providing lots of scary tips. The photo below is from our 2023 dance. This is always a colorful dance with awards given out for the best costumes; and our new students are invited to start attending Friday night dances with our caller doing some student-friendly mainstream tips.

*Lake of the Woods
2023 Spooky Halloween Dance*

PANHANDLERS

Charlotte Sowers

The Panhandlers Square Dance Club held their annual Veteran’s Day Dance on November 2, 2024. In observance of Veterans Day, the Missing Man Table was arranged by the club’s Treasurer, Amy. Many years ago, our club member, Jerry Roberts, started the tradition of the Missing Man Table at the Veterans Dance. This ceremony is meant to remind the viewer of fallen, missing or imprisoned U. S. military service members.

Every year, our President, Leonard Findley and our Treasurer Amy Goodman, continue this tradition by setting up the table and describing all the different elements of the display which are listed here;

A small table set for one, symbolizing the isolation of the absent service member

A white tablecloth to symbolize the pure intentions of the service members who responded to the country's call to arms

A single rose in the vase symbolizing the blood that service members have shed in sacrifice to ensure the freedom of the United States of America

The yellow ribbon represents a love of country that inspired the service members to serve the country

A slice of lemon on the bread plate that represents the bitter fate of the missing

Salt sprinkled on the bread plate that symbolizes the tears shed by waiting families

An inverted glass to represent the fact that the missing and fallen cannot partake

A lit candle symbolizes a light of hope that lives in hearts to illuminate the missing's way home

An empty chair to represent the absence of the missing and fallen

This dance is always a favorite for our members and we always recognize those members present who have served our country in the different branches of the military. And they are all pictured here.
